

ENTERPRISING Women, the UK's largest national community for female entrepreneurs, is launching a new club for businesswomen in Oxford.

Lawyer Francesca Lee (pictured) will host the first event, where businesswomen can discuss challenges and issues they face.

She believes it will allow like-minded female entrepreneurs to learn from each other and share their experiences and knowledge.

She said: "Knowledge is a powerful tool and if knowledge is not shared, then there is no learning. The needs of women in business are different from men. Women generally operate differently and our Enterprising Women's Business Club in Oxford, understands this very well."

Prospective members can attend two events to see if the club is right for them before joining.

The meeting will take place on Thursday, May 8, at the Magdalen Centre, The Oxford Science Park, Robert Robinson Avenue, Oxford, OX4 4GA.

MANY of the web's finest developers will gather in Oxford for the third jQuery UK conference next month, to discuss and share ideas about the world's most popular JavaScript framework.

Now in its third year, jQuery UK is the UK's largest front-end developer conference. It is the only UK event dedicated to jQuery.

Confirmed speakers include The Web Ahead's Jen Simmons, Tilde Co-Founder Yehuda Katz, CSS superstar Lea Verou and the jQuery Foundation's Adam J. Sontag.

Conference curator John Wards pictured, of White October said: "Our previous two years have been great events and had a real buzz around them."

jQuery UK will be staged on May 16 at The King's Centre, Osney Mead, Oxford. Tickets cost £175 plus VAT and include access to a delegate party with complimentary bar. For a full programme visit the website jqueryuk.com.
